Charlie opens the meeting with “One two three, eyes on me”. Everyone stops talking and looks at him.

This weekend, Friday is Cultural Pride Night and Saturday is football game.

We will screen Dan’s “Domino” video during the meeting.

Charlie on upcoming events:

Our first event of the semester is Cultural Pride Night, it is Friday night at approx. 5:30 pm at the closet in the Union. The event will be around 7-7:30pm – 10:00pm. Members volunteer; Dan adds that you can come for part of the time if you wish to fill in on a camera, or help set up.

The next event of the semester is football vs. WPI. We will meet at the closet at 10:30am, and then head over to the '86 field. It may rain, which would make the event all the more exciting. Football will probably last till around 3:30pm. Members volunteer, and again, you do not have to come for the entire time. Dan on football: we will probably have two cameras on top of the press box, as well as two cameras in the end-zones. Someone will be doing graphics, as well as sound, and this event will be broadcasted via B2 Networks, so there will be a live audience for this production.

Charlie will email everyone about those events as a reminder.

We will be taking an order for T-Shirts, which will cost $10.40. Other merch will be available through Café Press.

Dan on productions:

Horror Film Festival, we need to whip up some graphics and posters and also just spread the word about the festival. Talk to John Isabella if you would like to help out in anyway.

Also, keep an eye out for news events. Someone mentions the "Free speech wall" which will be up on Thursday being spray-painted. Someone will already be shooting a time-lapse of the wall, so we could possibly get that footage. Marc will be there from around 1:30 to 2:00pm.

We will now screen the "Domino Squad", which Dan hopes to turn into a recurring show. It was very funny. He will email people to let them know when the "Domino Squad" will be meeting in the future. Mike adds that he thinks that is one of the most in-depth RPI TV productions to-date, with the use of multiple cameras, zoom controllers, and the lighting kit.

Charlie reminds everyone the "closet" in the union is the room next to the ATM's in the lobby. He will send out reminders for the events this weekend, and that is all for tonight's meeting.
