Mike opens the meeting at 9:35. He announces that Charlie made a special request for this meeting, which was to make fun of Eric Klauser for the first 5 minutes.

Last weekend, we had two Hockey games, and the Dance Show. Mike watched one of the Hockey games on Channel 6, and the colors and shots all looked great. Dan says that if he could choose one Hockey production to point to as an example of what a game should look like, it would be our production of Hockey vs. Brown from Saturday.

There was a Student Senate meeting with Dr. Jackson today, so look for that on the RPI TV website in the near future.

Tomorrow, we will be filming a couple events. One of which is the Student Life Performance Review at 4pm with Eddie Knowles. Wednesday Night Live will also be on Wednesday at 8pm, setup at 6pm.

This weekend we also have a few events: Friday night is the Rensselaer Pride Alliance Fall Charity Drag Show at 7pm. We will be meeting at 4:30p for this event. This Saturday is Football vs. Merchant Marine at 1p, we will be meeting at 10:30a for setup.

This Sunday, we may or may not be filming Soccer at ECAV. The game will be held at RPI, but RPI's team may not be playing in the game. We will contact members when we find out if RPI is playing or not, and if they are, we will shoot the game.

Our news segment on the campus construction will be up on the website very soon. Charlie informs everyone of some news that he heard concerning the construction on campus. Right now, they are working on sucking out 26,000 gal of fuel-sand, which was in an old oil tank buried in the ground long ago. Someone filled the tank with sand so that the ground would not collapse when the tank was emptied.

Scott gives recognition to members who were at all three events this past weekend: Kyle Mackenzie, Matthias Galvin, Scott Altman, Mike DiTore, Dan Falkenstrom, Andrew

Armenia, Alex Niaura, and Reilly Hamilton. Brian tells everyone that we will be looking into fixing some equipment that has been broken over the weekend. Reilly would like to announce an Easter egg hunt; the eggs have been placed in various containers in the RPI TV room. Mike tells everyone that storing food along with RPI TV equipment is punishable by guillotine. Kyle purchased more Firewire cables today for the club, as well as some other miscellaneous cables and adapters.
