Mike opens the meeting at 9:38p. If anyone would like to contribute to the Doughnut fund, it is much appreciated. Last weekend we shot Football vs. Merchant Marine, which went very well. Andrew explains that there was an issue with audio and getting a VGA cable in time, but other than that it went very well. Charlie suggests that any time it might rain or is raining, we need to cover the zoom controllers because they fill up with water.

On Friday we shot the Drag Show, and this year finally nothing went wrong. Reilly says that everything looks and sounds great, and that it is a high-class production.

Last Wednesday, we shot the Student Life Performance Plan Review, Wednesday Night Live, and the College Republicans vs. Libertarians vs. Progressive Students Alliance Debate, all of which went very well.

This time of year is budget time, and we will be putting together our budget shortly, as it is due on December 1st.

Upcoming events: As always, if anyone has any ideas for upcoming news productions to please let us know.

Mike is here representing the IFC, who are having a meeting with Dr. Knowles in DCC 307 at 8:00p tomorrow. We will most likely film this as a news segment.

Reilly and some others will be filming 4 hockey games at the RPI Field House over Thanksgiving break for a tournament. We will use two cameras and the scoreboard, so the setup will be a bit more minimal than we are used to for Hockey, but it should still be a good production.

RPI TV will not have a business meeting on Tuesday, November 24th.

The official date for RPI TV's elections meeting will be December 8th. It will be a normal business meeting, but we will hold elections for officers.

Reilly has also drafted a new amendment to the RPI TV constitution, which he will send out to the members list for feedback as the draft progresses. Any and all input from members is welcome.

Some arguments ensue about sticks vs. brooms.

From Reilly: RPI TV has a growing library of DVDs for purchase. If you, a loved one, or a friend would like to purchase one of the productions below, please contact Kyle Mackenzie.

The productions that are available:

Dance Show

Cultural Pride Night

ISA Diwali Show

The productions that will be available soon:

The RPA Drag Show

Football Fall 2009 season boxed set

RPI TV will be hosting a film fest this Spring during GM week, which will be sometime around April 14th. If you are interested, contact Dan Falkenstrom.

Kyle had a meeting with someone where they discussed renovations of the field house. They discussed installing permanent cables, which offends Charlie because he "risked his life zip-tying those cables to the catwalk". We are also planning on bringing ideas of the future of our club to organizations on campus such as the E-Board and Student Life, if anyone has any ideas feel free to contact the officers.
