None. We don't have open meetings

- 4 People have keys and Dan Falk has requested a key. No one has returned old keys yet.
- People are still confused by the bureaucracy involved with the new equipment policy.
- There are no qualifications for a senior equipment supervisor.
- Alex Niaura is now a senior equipment operator (9 – 0 – 1)
- Zach Rowe is now a senior equipment operator (10 – 0 – 0)
- Jon Goldszmidt is now a senior equipment operator (9 – 0 – 0)
- Tiffany Milano is now a senior equipment supervisor (10 – 0 – 0)
- Mackenzie Sullivan is now a senior equipment operator (10 – 0 – 0)
- James Petranik is now a senior equipment operator (10 – 0 – 0)
- Andrew T$ is now a senior equipment operator (9 – 1 – 0)
- Andrew T$ is now a senior equipment supervisor (9 – 1 – 0)
- We want to be cool like E-Club and do office hours for editing.
- We need more money for our donut fund. We're gonna ask for donations. We have $154 left in our account allocated for food.
- We have women's hockey on Friday, but WRPI is not going to be there.
- We also have basketball tentatively scheduled for Saturday.
- Basketball is probably a three camera shoot
- We also have Clothe-A-Child Date Auction on our agenda for Friday. It starts at 9 and we have an 8:00 setup. (11-0-0). Mackenzie Sullivan will be producer and Andrew Tamoney will assist her.
- We've decided to do Men's & Women's Basketball on Friday. We will meet at 4:00 (ends at around 10pm) at the closet this Friday. Sean Andrese will be producer. (11 – 0 – 0)
- We will then do a production of women's hockey against Princeton on Saturday. We will meet in the closet at 1:00pm. Alex Niaura will be producer, with Tiffany Milano assisting.
- Andrew T$ & Tiffany Milano are proposing us do a Sopranos Intro production Sunday. There will be a 10:00 pm meet in the closet. Dan Falkenstrom will produce. (11 – 0 – 0)

- We have been approached to record a panel discussion with member of the 1985 NCAA Tournament winning hockey team. It's at 12pm meet in the closet and will be a three camera shoot. The production will start at 4pm. We will then record the hockey game after the panel discussion. We will have access to a 16X12 screen to project replays during the two hockey games next weekend (feb 5th and 6th). (11-0-0)
- We're finally getting intercoms that work better than what Alexander Bell had when he invented telephony. We're getting a leetsauce system with 8 belt packs and will use Jims' 3 intercoms. Our new intercom system will link with Jim's system. We will be able to talk to everyone now, even Reilly.
- We're getting a computer to capture our broadcast and using it for a web stream. Perhaps even do instant replay and there are talks of titling but that's kind of a long way off. This computer is pretty fracken awesome. (11 – 0 – 0)
