- Town Hall meeting went well. If we want audio in the future, we should let EMPAC know 1 week in advance.
- We did not meet on Sunday for the creative production. We need better leadership and communication.
- Reilly will talk to Jean tomorrow to get us some rooms for the candidate's speeches.
- Asian Awareness 2010 is going to be a 4 camera shoot, 5pm closet time.
- James got a list of programs that will be on showcase, if you are not on the officers list, email him for a copy of it.
- We will be going benchmarking of RPI. It will be a 3 hour drive both ways. We're not sure about what time. It is supposed to be a control group. Apparently, it's located in Troygle, NY.
- April 24th at 8pm – production of Urinetown (Players Production) (11-0-0)
- Reilly is working on the Players and Stallman Production and the Date Auction.
- Alex Niaura has been working on the Genericon production, she is almost done.
- Reilly wants more coordination and leadership with creative content. Mackenzie is going to step up to fill this roll.
- Kenley has asked to be a Senior Equipment Operator. (0-10-1). It was discussed that he ne needs to demonstrate a technical proficiency with all RPITV equipment. He needs to learn how to effectively setup and takedown cameras.
- James wants to push the Rock Band creative production, but he doesn't feel he has enough time, until after GM Week. Reilly will be the star performer in the production.
