

RPI TV Executive Committee Meeting 2010-04-27

Officers Present: Reilly Hamilton, Tiffany Milano, Andrew Tamoney, Zach Rowe, Alex Niaura, Kyle Mackenzie, Mackenzie Sullivan, James Petranik, Jonathan Goldszmidt

Members Present: Brian Michalski (recording secretary)

The meeting begins at 8:42pm.

SSTF RSVP Event - Reilly is putting it on the website right now. Reilly had a great time on the video switcher. That person did camera, and this person did audio. Zach declared "that person" to be Alex and "this person" to be Zach.

Speaking of food, everyone agrees to serve food at tonight's meeting. No one wants to go get it.

Sean jumps in and reports on sports. Reilly is emailing Jim Evans regarding the jumbotron for Lacrosse. Sean might not be able to make this Lacrosse event. This event needs a producer, one will be sought at tonight's meeting.

Brian Michalski has discovered a bug in the RPI TV website; see on your own by hovering over the title text for a production with a long description.

Tiffany is trying to relay a message to order pizza.

Benchmarking will be getting finished up this week. Andrew and Tiffany will be finishing this up ASAP.

Urinetown went fine from a recording standpoint, but experienced some technical glitches on the digitizing end.

Alex thinks Autocross is fun and she is thinking about shooting it with 5 cameras. Alex believes this event is exciting and she is excited to make it happen. Reilly has a gallery of 300 hot wheels in his room, viewing hours are from 2am - 4am Saturday and Sunday. Production approved 7-1-0-1.

Partial Credit is excited about the possibility of RPI TV filming their event and doing it well. Much time is spent discussion who will be performing at this event. Tiffany will produce this event. This event is approved 7-0-1-1.

Speaking about the audio situation in Mothers, Tiffany believes Tamoney is the smartest kid in the world and he can do anything. James states this system is dumb and a dumb person would be better at setting this up. James believes you cannot fry an egg in its shell and call it hard-boiled, but he would still like an egg crate for lighting purposes.

Rock Band is happening May 9 from 2pm until whenever in Academy Hall. James will be producing this event. Reilly will be working on getting a cast for this event. Tiffany volunteers to do makeup and hair because of her skill in ICP-style makeup. James is looking for people to fill lots of strange crew positions including Dry Ice Coordinator.

NRB 2010: Andrew met with Rebecca from NRB who volunteered to get us additional snacks. This event will be taking place on Thurs and Fri during the NRB week.

Gamefest will be Tuesday May 11 from 5 - 9pm. This production will be taking place in the EMPAC theatre. We are going to find out more information about this event before committing to it.

Kyle and Reilly discuss the DVD printer, which will be returned. Kyle is looking into buying a new one to replace the current low-quality one.

Tiffany is discussing the bins. Tiffany is throwing out the cart Zach Rowe approved. She will be reorganizing the closet on Sunday, at 2:00pm. Reilly is interested in the BYOB system where people assemble their own bins.

Kyle has purchased lots of DVDs and cases. Reilly would like us to look into head cleaning tapes, new monitors for the mac, more hard drives. James would like a lighting egg crate.

Kyle has been asked to present to the 50-year alumni club to present about RPI TV on May 11 from 10pm. He will send out more details to the officers.
