UPAC Showcase is coming up and James is thinking about leading that production. He and Reilly want to integrate training of new members and this event as a super mega extravagant rpitv event. We will be meeting at the closet at 5pm this Saturday. (9-0-0)

We didn't approve an event last week because we were confused about the submitter and who wanted us there. I think we're about to reverse our vote from last week.

We're going to do Wednesday Night Live again. We're not too sure about crew, so if at the business meeting enough people sign up, we'll do it. Andrew Tamoney is going to produce. (10-0-0)

The harddrive committee has posted its wishlist. The total cost currently is 280.00
