Reilly begins the meeting by asking Kyle to talk about numbers for the RPI TV website. It seems that we are doing really awesome and getting a lot of hits and stuff, so this is a very good thing. We'd like the numbers to continue to grow.

We have 5 productions this weekend. We have a men's hockey game and a show to do this Friday. The hockey game is against RIT and it's at 7pm. We'll be meeting at the closet at 4pm. We're also shooting ImprovCapella. It should be a really good EMPAC filled event. With EMPAC filled equipment. The show starts at 8pm with a setup time for 6pm.

ImprovCapella Volunteers – Eric Amaral, James Petranik, Brian Wilczewski, Ryan Kemper, Matthias Galvin, Mackenzie Sullivan.

Hockey – Tiffany Milano, Andrew Tamoney, Alex Niaura (maybe), Lydia (maybe), Robert McDonald(probably), Kenley Cheung, Ben Vreeland, Reilly Hamilton, Andrew Armenia.

We have an event on Saturday which is a fencing tournament and we're going to be paid for it. Reilly will produce and be crew for the event, even though he didn't want to do it. The Executive Committee Voted to force him to do it.

Next up is the Divali show. It's this Saturday and the event starts at 7pm and we'll meet at the closet at 5pm and go to West Hall from there. Reilly will be producing

Volunteers – Reilly Hamilton, Kenley Cheung, Ben Vreeland, Andrew Tamoney, Tiffany Milano

Finally we're doing a 1 camera production for the Players, but the crew is pretty much filled for the production, so we don't really need volunteers for it.

The Committee Reports begin now

Tiffany has nothing to report, but Zach reports we will start showing a new Football game very soon as well as perhaps A Capella Extravaganza.

Alex Niaura is making steady progress with her public relation roles and is making the word of RPI TV known to all.

Andrew Tamoney has not much to report.

Mackenzie Sullivan has nothing to Report.
James Petranik doesn't have much to report
