There seems to be some confusion about a Sheer Idiocy show, James is going to investigate the matter further.

James concludes his investigation. We believe ImprovCapella is happening this Friday and we're going to do it and Kyle will be producing. (9-0-0)

Andrew Carlson has contacted RPITV about recording Fencing for the Fencing Club. RPI TV would be paid for the production. The committee has decided that Reilly produce and be the cameraman. (8-0-1) Reilly abstained because well, I'm not sure.

We need a producer for the Divali Show as well as Hockey. Andrew Tamoney volunteers to do the hockey game and Reilly has announced he shall do the Divali show.

Next Reilly starts talking about the Dance Recital. James incorrectly claimed it was from 1:00 – 1:30pm on Saturday, November 13th. He meant to say, "1:00pm – 3:30pm." James was going to produce, but then I decided that Alex would produce because she's cuter than James. Setup is going to be at 11am. We're going to vote now. We voted and the result was (10-0-0). The additional person is a result of Robert McDonald showing up to the meeting. He hadn't realized he was supposed to come to this meeting.

Reilly starts listing out a list of productions we are totally dropping the ball on. Most significant of which is Date Auction which was done over 9000 ago.

We're buying a replacement power supply for the Z5U which had something happen to it. We're going to buy it from our good friends from Adorama.

While Kyle is talking about Empac stuff, James' glasses broke. Now he's blind and deaf. I'm sorry Kyle was droning on and on, so I couldn't pay attention. Ask Kyle if you want an update on EMPAC stuff.

We want to make sure we don't become slave labor for Empac. Haris wonders if we're okay with being slave labor for RPI Athletics.
