Next Wednesday we might shoot the Student Life Performance Plan Review and the GM/PU forum.

Tiffany Milano says we have a lot of shows, so please keep the bins neat.

Zach Rowe says we will be broadcasting some stuff on Channel6.

Kyle Mackenzie has nothing to say today

Andrew Tamoney says that he will be chairing the Blimp Subcommittee. W2SZ is interested in creating a blimp with A/V capabilities. It is in a very infant state.

Mackenzie Sullivan, Sean Andrese, and James Petranik have nothing to report.

Robert McDonald will be working on getting a behind the scenes production showcasing what it takes to create a hockey production.

Matthias is thinking of a production that may take 90 minutes total to record. He's looking for five extra people for this Sunday at noon:
